Women's Club Notes

Mrs. Minnie L. Crosthwait, Kansas City's popular florist, was elected president of the Federation of Clubs.

THE PHYLLIS WHEATLEY ART CLUB.

The Phyllis Wheatley Art club met at 1313 Michigan avenue with Mrs. Marie McCline as hostess. Next Thursday, December 17, Mrs. Julia Martin, 1624 Virginia, will entertain. And Mrs. Katie Powell, 2323 Highland avenue, December 24.

THE CLIPPERS.

The Clippers wish to thank Mrs. M. E. Bailey for hemming all the sheets and pillow cases of the recent donations. The Clippers are making and filling fifty bags for the tree to be given by Provident Association at Garrison Square, and also will give their annual dinner to a poor family.

TAKE NOTICE.

To correspondents, club reports and others: On account of Christmas coming on Friday, the day of publication, the Sun will be published next week on Wednesday and should reach our subscribers on Thursday. Take due notice and govern yourselves accordingly.

THE XX HISTORY AND ART CLUB.

The XX History and Art club met Thursday, December 10, with Mrs. L. W. Fitzpatrick, and a very enthusiastic business meeting was held with the majority of the members present. Our last meeting was not reported because of the lateness of the adjournment, but our hostess, Mrs. Fred Douglass, entertained us royally. We had the pleasure of the presence of one visitor, Mrs. Nash Porter, who gave us some very encouraging remarks. After being served to a delicious lunch we adjourned to meet with Mrs. Lige Hendricks, 1802 East Twenty-fourth street. All members are urged to me present.

FALSE TESTIMONY

Nine Negroes Sent to Penitentiary—Girl, whose Evidence Sent Them, Retracts Before Trial Judge

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 26.—Gertrude Hollinshead, about 16 years old, on whose testimony nine Negroes were convicted of serious charges and sent to penitentiary for terms ranging from 13 to 35 years, now says that her testimony was false. She met Judge Egan Langford before whom the case was tried at Conway a year ago last August, in Little Rock last night by appointment and said she wished to retract all the charges she had made against the Negroes and ask that they be pardoned.

At the time when the crimes for which the Negroes were said to have committed, the girl was under 16 years of age. She was an orphan and until a short time before the Negroes were arrested was living with a step-mother. It is said that she was driven from home and took refuge with a Negro woman named Luvide Simms, who was sentenced to 35 years for her part in the case.

Since the conviction of the Negroes Gertrude has been in a Catholic convent at Hot Springs. She gives as her reason for making the statement that the Negroes are not guilty, that since receiving some religious training she has begun to realize the enormity of her falsehoods which caused the conviction of the Negroes. She says she wants to right the wrong as far as possible even though she is prosecuted for perjury.—The New American.

REV. STRICKLAND DEAD.

Rev. H. E. Strickland, former Moderator of Shiloh Association, died at his residence, 2019 Madison street, last Monday morning. The funeral will be held Sunday at 2:00 p. m. at Rev. McNeal's Church on Spittog avenue.

AN "UNPREJUDICED" OFFICIAL.

Police Commissioner W. W. Knight said that the board of police commissioners will go into executive session this morning, to take action on the row in a saloon at Eighteenth street and Euclid avenue on Monday night, when a patrolman and a negro were shot. Another patrolman admits having fired his revolver three times.

"I'll tell you this," said Commissioner Reynolds, in his office in the Commerce building yesterday afternoon, "I'm not going to take the word of any negro against that of a white policeman."—The Journal.

Commissioner Reynolds is correctly quoted in the above article, then he is unfit for the position he holds, absolutely disregards the oath which he took with uplifted hand when sworn into office and gives evidence of demagoguery by befitting the high and responsible office he holds. "I'll not take the word of ANY NEGRO against that of a WHITE policeman"—Fine words Mr. Commissioner, fine display of fair dealing and equal justice.

XX HISTORY AND ART CLUB.

The XX History and Art Club met with Mrs. E. Hendricks, 1802 E. 24th street, Thursday, in a business meeting. A goodly number of the members were present. The Club is planning to aid the Provident Association in their Christmas work. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Georgia Logan, 2645 Hixland avenue, Thursday, December 24. Members please be present.

MARION BROOKS, THEATRICAL MANAGER, DIES AT CIN. CINNATI.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 4.—Marion Brooks, one of the race's best theatrical managers, died here this week of meningitis. He was general manager of the Lincoln theater, the swiftest little playhouse in the Southwest. Mr. Brooks was well known throughout America. He was born in Dallas, Tex. He began his theatrical career with Charles Hunter, produced the popular musical comedy, "Exit to Panama," went to Chicago and assisted J. Ed Green with productions at the Pekin theater, and managed the Criterion theater in Kansas City for about a year.

He resigned this to take the management of the Little Grand theater and afterwards formed the Chester Amusement Company that came near controlling every small house along the "State." Mr. Brooks was compelled to go South on account of ill health, and formed his own company that went over the country. Mr. Brooks died in fairly good circumstances. He leaves a wife, known in the theatrical world as Miss Theresa Burroughs Doll, who was at his bedside when he passed away. Every one that knew Marion Brooks loved him.

LEXINGTON, MO.

Mrs. Mayme Moses passed away Thursday evening at her home on Franklin avenue after an illness of several months. She was buried Sunday afternoon, the funeral services being conducted at the Second Baptist church by Rev. Williams. She leaves three sisters and three brothers and other relatives to mourn her loss. Dr. Baker of Chicago was in the city Sunday on business. Miss Minnie Coleman is home for the winter, having been out West for a couple of years. Mr. Irwin Hawkins is at home now from Arizona, having been called here on account of the illness of his father. Miss Jeannette Woodson spent the week-end at home. She is teaching in Dover, Mo.

Mrs. Ella Devoe, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Little Rock, Ark., has returned home.

TRIBUTE TO PASEO Y. M. C. A.

A brighter day, a brighter day.
For Kansas City, through our Y. M. C. A.;
Stronger boys, nobler men,
Broad-hearted citizens, happy women
It will give to these.

A better day, a better day,
For Kansas City, through our Y. M. C. A.;

A place to play, a place to work,
A place to teach boys not to shirk
It will give to these.
A happier day, a happier day,
For Kansas City, through our Y. M. C. A.
Fathers, brothers, sons, and friend
May many a happy moment spend
In this place for these.

A glorious day, a glorious day,
When taught to work, when taught to play,
When taught to sing, when taught to pray;

When taught to be a real, real man
And in the "Battle of life" can stand,
Kansas City will rejoice that day
For building Paseo Y. M. C. A.

A Christmas spirit.

What a wonderful day Christmas is! In no other of the whole 365 is so much of happiness, of unselfishness, of kindness to be found. A profound transformation takes place in human hearts and they overflow with a kindness that best expresses itself in bringing happiness to others. And this is the strangest part of the whole wonderful thing—the more happiness you give to others the greater your own happiness becomes, and the long sought after big, fat hen, turkey, geese and ducks are found nestling down at Moon's.

Where the "Best of Everything" quality abounds in such variety that even though your marksmanship is bad, your aim is good, for you are sure to hit the right thing—at Moon's. Thanking you for past favors, wishing you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

MAN AGAINST MAN

gripped in bloody combat!!!

Alone in the hot deadly wastes of the desert. Certain death facing the one who lost. One fought for a "woman" who must be bought for gold. The other for his own little child.

One is Wilkerson—the other is Gallon. It forecasted fifteen years of mighty struggling against fate—against misery—against human suffering.

And the Combat? Who Won It?

You can see it all in the thrilling MASTER KEY serial at the

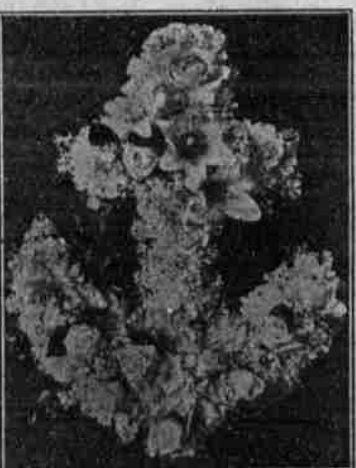

(Name of your Theatre)

THE MASTER KEY
by JOHN FLEMING WILSON
A Thrilling Story of Mystery and Romance!

Did you see that new storm front that has been added to the Rex Theatre, 2411 Vine Street? Don't you know that it was added just to keep you warm while you see the best pictures that are shown any place in the city? Mr. Dorsey Brown is now managing the theatre for Dr. E. J. Campbell, and he is trying in every way to please you. The screen has been whitened and two large stoves installed. The manager is strictly in for better service. Did you see "Lucille Love" or "The Trey O' Hearts"? Well when you see "The Master Key" you will say it is by far the greatest serial picture that has yet been produced. "The Master Key" has more thrills, more realism, more action than any other serial ever conceived; it has cost twice as much to produce; it has a more gripping and mysterious theme; and it has Robert Leonard and Ella Hall (of Rex fame) for its stars; an Irish girl, with Spanish blood in her veins—a hell bent witch—the lightning's stroke—a brave man and a mine. These, the prime factors in "The Master Key," starts Wednesday, December 23. Don't miss the first episode. For the benefit of its patrons the management has gone to the expense of procuring small booklets containing the first and second episodes of the story. Ask the girl in the ticket office for one. The Christmas week program is great. Monday, December 21, the 13th episode of "The Trey O' Hearts"; Tuesday, 6 reels of pictures with an exciting Indian Drama; Wednesday, "The Master Key"; Thursday, the great "Million Dollar Mystery"; Friday, a magnificent Christmas program will be shown. The admission will be 5 cents at all times. Come early—keep warm and see the best pictures—hear the best music and spend a delightful hour at the Rex Theatre, 2411 Vine Street.

LAWRENCE, KAS.
The Steward Board of St. Luke's A. M. E. church met with Mrs. Payne at the parsonage. The auxiliary board of St. Luke met with Mrs. Monroe on West Fifth street. Mr. J. H. Strode, a prosperous citizen of Lawrence, lies at the point of death at his home, Seventh and Penn streets. The many friends of Mrs. Jane Jeffries were sorry to learn of her death, which occurred Tuesday night at the home of her son, Wm. Jeffries, 12777 Ohio street. Rev. Jackson, pastor of Ninth Street Baptist church, met with an accident last week but is improving now. St. Luke A. M. E. church gave a very successful bazaar December 17 at the church. Rev. Smith, presiding elder of the Kansas City District, was in town Saturday. The L. A. A. basketball team is ready to take on all comers of games. Write Richard Elliott, 1508 Kentucky street. The Lawrence High school colored basketball team played a very good game with Topeka Y. M. C. A. Friday night, December 11, but lost by a score of 9 to 6. Mrs. Shaw of Illinois has moved her family to Lawrence and her daughter Frances is attending school here. Mr. W. C. Brown will clean and press your suit.
